All shipments will be sent via FedEx ground unless otherwise requested. Adult signature is required on delivery. Please check our website to confirm your state accepts alcoholic beverages from California before requesting shipping preference. For a complete list of states, please visit our website. We reserve the right to hold wine shipments to locations experiencing extreme weather conditions until we feel your wine will not be jeopardized. If a delivery is delayed, you will be notified via email. Your personal and credit card information will be kept strictly confidential and will not be used for any reason other than to charge your wine club shipment. Charges will appear on your bank statement from The Wine Closet.
